

Newsletter

14 JULY 2010

1. OPEN WEEKEND IN CAMBRIDGESHIRE AND PETERBOROUGH 23-25th July 2010

Cambridgeshire and Peterborough are taking part in London 2012 Open Weekend, supported by BP, part of an annual UK-wide celebration counting down to the London 2012 Olympic and Paralympic Games.

Open Weekend 2010 will take place on 23 - 25 July, as we start the countdown to the 2012 Games. Once again, it will feature hundreds of sporting, arts and culture events right across the UK. This year, organisations have created a challenge for their audience – to try something new, take an existing skill to a new level or discover a new talent by participating in one of the many activities on offer.

A full programme of events is available at:

<http://www.cambridgeshire.gov.uk/leisure/arts/culturalolympiad.htm>

2. MUSIC FOR KIDS

A programme to amuse, delight and instruct children of all ages about all kinds of music!

The Jungle Book workshop (Saturday 17 July 10.30 - 4.30) at Emmanuel United Reformed Church, 8 – 12 years. Workshop £7 or two children for £12.

Aurora Orchestra and Capoeira Workshops (Saturday 24 July 11-3) at West Road Concert Hall. A workshop for children to explore the exciting connections between music and dance. £7 per child, £12 for two.

The Ballad of Salomon Pavey, Youth Music Theatre, (Sunday 25 July 7.30pm) at Cambridge Arts Theatre. For adults it is a joy to watch and, for children, it is a fine example of how much fun music and theatre can be. £20, £15, £10.

The Story of Paganini (Friday 30 July 3.30pm) at Emmanuel United Reformed Church. A concert with illustrations by international virtuoso violinist Jack Glatzer. For all children and parents from age 6. Children under 16 £3, (third child free) Adults £5.

Family Picnic Concert (Saturday 31 July 3.30pm) at Wandlebury Country Park. A relaxing and fun afternoon with the family, picnic outdoors and music! (Bring rugs and picnics if you wish.) Suggested donations after the concert £4 per person £1 per child.

Lines & Loops (Wednesday 4 August) at Emmanuel United Reformed Church. A workshop and concert with Steve Bingham - violin, electric violin and live looping. Have you ever wanted to try an electric string instrument? Here's your chance!

Workshop: 3 - 4.30pm £5 per child, £8 for 2 children Concert: 4.45 - 5.45pm Free to workshop participants, adults £5, children £3 Family Ticket £13 (two adults and two children)

For any further details on any of these workshops or queries please contact 01223 894161 or info@cambridgesummertime.com